

FRIDAY NIGHT NOIR

Introducing a new Film Series for mature audience

Wikipedia describes film noir as a low-key, black-and-white visual style that has roots in German Expressionist cinematography. Many of the prototypical stories and much of the attitude of classic noir derive from the hardboiled school of crime fiction that emerged in the United States during the Great Depression.”

Beginning in March and on every first Friday of each month (unless otherwise stated) we will be showing Noir Films, at 7:00 pm in the Community Room, on the BIG Screen. Feel welcome to bring any refreshments for your enjoyment (no alcohol, please). Before each movie we will be given a little intro into some background information about the film and at the end, if anyone would like to share or discuss any insights, we can do that as well. We hope you will come and enjoy a night out with us. It will be an enjoying and relaxing fun night for all and for some perhaps, an evening of nostalgic reminiscing.

Are you a fan
of the 1940s & 1950s noir
films where sometimes everything is not always as it seems?

Join us for a nostalgic
evening into the world of classic
Hollywood
filmmaking and witness
legendary acting
from a bygone
era

On March 6th at 7:00 p.m. come and watch

Scarlet Street on the BIG screen

Starring Edward G. Robinson, Joan Bennett, and Dan Duryea

Directed by Fritz Lang

Step back in time to the golden age of classic film noir. Starring one of the all-time great Hollywood actors, Edward G. Robinson, this is the dark tale of a man in a mid-life crisis.

He befriends a beautiful woman who believes he owns a small fortune. Her boyfriend convinces her to con him. But is everything as it seems? A perfect film packed with class.
